Pilleth Oaks is a country house which has been purpose built to provide quality accommodation, as well as character.

Bed and Breakfast accommodation is provided with 2 Double and 1 twin bedded room, all en suite. We are renowned for our imaginative dinner menus using local produce whenever possible.

Situated in the now quite Radnorshire Valleys in Mid Wales, Pilleth Oaks is built on the site of the Battle of Pilleth 1402, in an area steeped in history.

The house is on an elevated site with stunning views of the Lugg Valley.

Guests can enjoy breakfast 'al fresco' (weather permitting), a pre dinner drink or just sit and enjoy the peace and quiet of beautiful surroundings on our terrace / balcony accessed from both the lounge and dining room.

Open all year providing a good central location for exploring Wales
Stunning views in a very peaceful location.
Plenty of off road parking.
Warm, friendly welcome. Tea on the terrace or in the lounge on arrival or full facilities in rooms.
Every kind of outdoor pursuit is available locally.

Behind the property is a natural lake teeming with wildlife, fishing is available and there is a bird-watching hide. Binoculars are always to hand in the house. Ideal walking area. close to the three National Trails of Offa's Dyke, Glyndwr Way and the Wye Valley.

*" Now we have a purpose-built home offering a high standard of accommodation.
Bookings can be made by telephone or e-mail and we look forward to welcoming you. "*

There is a guest lounge with television and video with comfortable antique furniture. French windows lead on to the terrace with views over the lake.

Breakfasts are served in the dining room. Evening meals can be provided by arrangement.

Please contact Heather or Peter for details of availability and price.
